

Bones For Blankets

The Sacred Bones Society MC hosted the Bones For Blankets fundraiser on Saturday November 1, 2014 for the VA Homeless Vets Project. It took place from noon 'til 4p at Shooters Steakhouse & Saloon in Tucson. Turnout was good.

In addition to music and vendors, there was a strong man competition for trophies. This included a Keg Toss and a Cinder Block Hold. The winner of that lasted about 12 minutes.

100% of proceeds go to the VA's Homeless Vets

Project. Along with a cashier's check for $1650 and a box of toiletries, over 1700 blankets, plus underwear, socks, knit beanies, scarves, gloves, and coats were delivered. All items went directly to US Veterans who were homeless or in need this past winter.

The members of Sacred Bones Society MC would like to thank all who came out to support Bones for Blankets. "We cannot express the joy of seeing our brethren come out to help with this cause. Over 20 clubs/associations and numerous independents gave of their time and money to fill a need and we thank you. Special thanks also go out to 'Designs by Luise' and 'Indian of Tucson'."

Thank you to Face, AZ's Sergeant at Arms for Sacred Bones Society MC, for sending details and photos for this report. Learn more about the Sacred Bones Society MC by visiting their website at www.sacredbones.org/
