

Advertiser Review: Harley McFarley & Two Plates Full

Life's too short not to have fun stuff! That's the philosophy at Two Plates Full & Harley McFarley. This unique shop offers apparel, jewelry, collectibles, gifts, accessories, wall art, functional art, & so much more; and all with an artistic & singular flair. Everything here is one-of-a-kind. Find giftables themed for those bikers, cowboys, pet-lovers, and right-brained people in your life. Quite noteworthy is that more than 85% of the items offered are created by American artisans. Any visit here is sure to spark a smile.

There's just no reason for life to be taken too seriously. There's stuff here that everyone uses ... clocks, dishes, glassware, chairs, desks, linens, & more ~ but designed to lift the Spirit with a heavy dose of fun & whimsy. And who doesn't wish from time to time that they had a voodoo doll

Owner Terri Weisz is a self-proclaimed 'shopaholic'. She loves the hunt... finding that special something to add to her inventory. There is organized chaos here... okay ~ maybe leaning more toward the chaos part {:o) With a store offering literally thousands of items to browse, anyone's desire to rummage & seek out that perfect item will certainly be fulfilled.

You can view a lot of inventory on the website; but to see the full extent of what Terri has brought together you really need to visit the store. She is continuously acquiring new funky finds to add to the collection. The goal of the web galleries is to give you an idea of the type of stuff you'll find.

The Harley McFarley clothing line was born out of the love of motorcycles & riding that Terri & her husband share. Commemorative t-shirts she'd purchase at places they'd visit were modified from standard unisex tees to creative, more gal-style, fashions. Compliments received inspired this new, clever, undertaking. Harley McFarley jackets & tank tops allow women to proclaim their love of riding, plus maintain femininity & personal panache. Being wise as well, some of Terri's designs do have themes other than bikes. Harley McFarley is all about 'stuff so cool your friends will drool'.

Terri has these upcoming events to share... Second Sunday Art Fest on November 10th from noon to 4:30..... There will be local handcraft artists, music provided by AZ Chicks With Picks, and some good eats. These are being held each 2nd Sunday through April. And on the 1st Thursday of the month from 6-8:30p, Gainey Village hosts a SIPS AND SOUNDS concert series. Be sure to drop in at Two Plates Full while you are there.

Singular, quirky, fun, unique, unusual, ... These are all words that describe what you'll find when you visit Two Plates Full. Whether you are shopping for the upcoming holidays or treating yourself to a little something.... You are sure to find something here to stir your imagination.
