

What The Hell Bar & Grill 2nd Anniversary Party

What the Hell Bar & Grill celebrated their Second Anniversary with a day long Party on Saturday January 28, 2012. There was music, food, entertainment, games, and drink specials.

Events included Gunfighter Shows performed by the Mojave Muleskinners and a Corn Hole Tournament. A 'Peoples Choice' Chili Cook-off offered more than 6 recipes to sample and judge. Music by Uncorked The Band, Trip Hazard, Wooden Nickel, Flicker, and Rock Land kept the bandstand busy and patrons entertained throughout the day & night.

This biker-friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a great stop along the Apache Trail. If you are heading out on a ride, stop by for breakfast ~ served daily 7-11am. On your way home? Roll in for a refreshing beverage and to share stories from the road. Don't want to fix dinner after being out riding? The kitchen offers burgers, sandwiches, and more. Each night there is a dinner special. They've got you covered.

They have Live Bands with no cover charge every Friday & Saturday; Poker on Mondays & Thursdays; Karaoke on Tuesday & Wednesday; Pool tournaments on Wednesday. Check out their website for times and other details.

What the Hell Bar & Grill was voted 2011's "Best Neighborhood Bar In The Southeast Valley" by Phoenix New Times. It is located at 10262 East Apache Trail in Apache Junction, AZ. Call 480-380-6000 or visit their website at
